The Independent is published ten times yearly by the Foundation for Independent Video and Film, Inc. (FIVF), 625 Broadway, 9th Floor, New York, NY 10012, (212-473-3400), a not-for-profit, tax-exempt educational foundation dedicated to the promotion of video and film, and by the Association of Independent Video and Filmmakers, Inc. (AIVF), the national trade association of independent producers and individuals involved in independent video and film. Subscription is included with membership in AIVF. Together, FIVF and AIVF provide a broad range of educational and professional services for independents and the general public. Publication of The Independent is made possible in part with public funds from the New York State Council on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

The Independent welcomes unsolicited manuscripts. Manuscripts cannot be returned unless a stamped, self-addressed envelope is included. No responsibility is assumed for loss or damage.

Letters to The Independent should be addressed to the editor. Letters may be edited for length.

COVER: Alexis Carrington Colby, Dex Dexter, and the rest of the implausibly rich and inveterately slimy "Dynasty" crew, are part of the lives of television viewers the world over. In "Joan Does Dynasty: A Neopagan, Postsituationist, Socialist/Anarcho/Feminist Expose," Joan Braderman returns the favor, infiltrating the Carrington manse to answer the question: "Why do a hundred million people in 78 countries welcome this department store of dressed-to-kill aliens into their homes every week?"
